"First they came for the communists,
and I did not speak out-- because I was not a communist.
Then they came for the socialists,
and I did not speak out-- because I was not a socialist.
Then they came for the labor leaders,
and I did not speak out-- because I was not a labor leader.
Then they came for the Jews,
and I did not speak out-- because I was not a Jew.
Then they came for me-- and there was no one left to speak out for me."

Reverend Martin Niemmoeller, a pastor in the German Confessing Church, who spent 7 years in a concentration camp.
